Mr. Pierce, of Georgiana, bought a mule of Arthur O. Lapham this week.

Capt. Coggin arrived home last week looking well after his summer's outing.

Mrs. J. R. Field, of Indianola, spent several days in town the first part of the week.

Miss Clara Sanders will visit Miss E. Dart in Apopka before she returns to her home.

Dr. Scofield is having the grounds around his cottages cleaned up and improving the place in general.

We are now enjoying the Japan persimmons, the native persimmons are ripening also.

Capt. C. F. Fischer spent several days in Cocoa last week. He is on a cruise to the Narrows.

Roy Packard left for Miami on Monday. He will take the operator's place, who is off on a vacation.

Mr. John Taylor's mother and sister arrived on Saturday. They will spend the winter with Mr. Taylor and family.

Mrs. Jarvis has her house nearly all engaged for the winter season. Dr. and Mrs. Di Bol will be here in December.

Mr. Gibert, Fred Travis and Wm. Moore provided their homes with deer meat last week. Venison and brown gravy is all right.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Wood, Mrs. W. G. Patterson, Mrs. A. A. Taylor and Carrie made a pleasant theatre party in Atlanta, Ga., one night this week.

Walter Hatter and Zach and Jerry Dixon were out killing time in the woods one day last week. Maybe they will have better luck next time.

Geo. Sweeney has a new motor in his boat. We advise him to make home early these nights, as the boat can be heard four miles, more or less.

The town election passed off very quietly on Monday. Dr. Hughlett, Sam Childs and Fred Fisher were elected. Jack Fleming was elected as marshal.

Judge Hammond and Waddams spent Sunday at Dixon. The doctor and wife spent short time now and return later season.

Col. and Mrs. ... arrived Tuesday's train. ... with her ... health is much ... nels is not so good.

Cocoa will soon have new houses, for the and getting ready all reports the town heavier than it has been.

ROCKLEDGE.

Capt. and Mrs. Coggin are again at their Rockledge home from a summer spent with relatives in the north.

Capt. C. F. Fisher, of Titusville, was delivering books here this week. He was in his sailing yacht and was going as far south as Sebastian.

The grounds around the Hotel Indian River have lately been cleared up and the ornamental shrubs are in flourishing condition. Mr. Marsh's arrival is expected at any time.

Capt. George Gingras has recently put in the water two small launches made by himself this summer. They are beauties, one is already sold while the other he still owns.

George Hatch started forth with gun and camping apparatus on Monday expecting to join Mr. Hancock and Bryan Cox, both veteran woodsmen, on a ten days' hunt at Wolf Creek.

Mrs. G. S. Hardee and daughters, Misses Maude and Grace, arrived home Sunday from Janesville, Wisconsin, after a pleasant visit of several months with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Skelly.

Several workmen sent south by Mr. Shares arrived Monday and are now engaged in laying pipes for perfecting the steam heating system throughout the house. Some of the rooms in the older portion of the house have never had radiators placed in till now.

The sloop yacht Hero, lately owned by Mr. E. Day, who has extensive orange grove interests in South Rockledge, has lately been sold to parties at Indianola and is now in good sailing trim. This boat was once the property of Capt. E. L. Magruder and was quite a racer in other days.

Charlie Hatch killed a big buck while out hunting last week and as material evidence of the fact he brought home a handsome pair of antlers. The trophies brought in by Garrett van Houte, who was out at the same time, are the rattlers of a six-foot snake and the lower jaw bone of a "razor back" with teeth and tusks intact. The latter he means to have polished and made into a rack for pens; while not an exact counterpart of Samson's weapon of biblical note still with proper use in a minister's hands it should become a factor in routing the powers of darkness.

WHITE CITY.

Mr. Sogard was the guest of Mr. I. P. Christiansen recently.

There will be a dance next Saturday night under the auspices of the club.

Mr. Lamont spent Monday in Jensen on business, returning home Tuesday morning.

Our young people are arranging for an entertainment to be given soon in the school house.

Will the mosquitoes ever leave us? Mr. Austin said some time ago that they were only visitors, but we are beginning to think they are residents.

Messrs. Driggers and Cameron carried home a fine deer, which they shot near Hog Pen branch, six miles south of here, Saturday. Maybe they were tired when they got home.

Some of our young men gathered to clear off ground on which to play ball last Saturday, but failed to agree on the site, some going back home and others working where they thought best. Such is always the case where there is no real organization with a leader.

Since last writing we have another addition to our circle of residents, Mrs. Joan Traynor and two children, from New Jersey. Mr. Traynor came a few weeks ago and is farming with his brother, E. J. Traynor. Mrs. Traynor is delighted with the climate, but Oh! the mosquitoes.

Itching Skin

Distress by day and night—
That's the complaint of those who are so unfortunate as to be afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum—and outward applications do not cure. They can't.

The source of the trouble is in the blood—make that pure and this itching, burning, itching skin disease will disappear.

"I was taken with an itching on my arms which proved very disagreeable. I concluded it was salt rheum and bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two days after I began taking it I felt better. It was not long before I was cured. I have never had any skin disease since." Mrs. IDA E. WARD, Cove Point, Md.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills rid the blood of all impurities and cure all eruptions.
